The purpose of the Rose Hill Presbyterian Church College Scholarship Program (Scholarship Program) is to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ through the promotion of higher learning for students who will take the Gospel into the world through ministry, mission, and industry.

Members and regular attenders of Rose Hill Presbyterian Church who are pursuing education beyond high school at accredited institutions that are non-profit organizations under IRS 501(c)(3) provisions are eligible to apply for scholarships. Studies must lead toward a degree or certification.

Applicants must demonstrate:

- A desire to spread the Gospel through their participation and leadership in church ministries and missions
- The potential to succeed in their further education
- A well-rounded life

Additionally, consideration will be given to applicants with financial need.

INSTRUCTIONS

- Application must be completed and a signed hard copy (pages 1-4) returned to the office by close of business May 22, 2023.
 - Include zip codes with all addresses.
- OPTIONAL - Please include a copy of your most recent transcript and any relevant test scores (e.g. ACT, SAT, GMAT, MCAT).
- Please check here if attaching test scores. Indicate which scores are included:

- Request three references to fill out the attached form, to be returned to Rose Hill Presbyterian Church by close of business, May 22, 2023. The form is also available at rosehill.church.
