Women's Studies

Ladies of the Lord (LOL)

Tuesdays @ 9:30am Church Library
Contact: Linda Muilenburg 425-883-6618

These ladies love to laugh and love the Lord. Choosing a new video series, book, or study a couple of times a year, they stay current and relative.

Sack-Lunch & Study

2nd & 4th Wed @ 12:00pm Church Library
Contact: Barbara Clark 425-861-4655

We "brown bag" our lunch and get together for an enriching study of the Word. This group supports one another in prayer and encouragement.

Friday Mornings

Fridays @ 9:30am Church Library
Contact: Barbara Clark 425-861-4655

A steady group who have been meeting together for many years are always open to having new ladies join them. They study the scriptures in depth, making life-application as well as seeking the truths that are written.

Special Interest Groups

Group Activity & Christian Fellowship

Weekend Hiking

Various Places
Saturday, as weather permits
Vickie Gallagher blmargal@yahoo.com
Everyone, including children with their parents, are welcome to gather at the church and carpool to their starting point, bringing their own sack-lunches and $2.00 each to share in the expense of gas and parking. Contact Vickie for upcoming schedule & destinations.

Women's Hiking

Various Places
Thursdays @ 9:30am (summer months only)
Barbara Clark 425-861-4655
As an active group of women of all ages, the ladies plan a summer of day hikes/walks at various locations around King and Snohomish County. Watch for their schedule in June 2017.

Women's Book Club

Ladies' Homes
Monthly/Varying Dates - Afternoon
Sue Mateer 425-822-2790

These ladies love good books! Upon recommendation from others in the group, they choose a new book each month to read independently, then gather to discuss their views. The literature varies; fiction, non-fiction, biographies, but is always interesting to hear what others think and what they felt about it. Rotating from one person's home to another, all are welcoming of new ladies.

Piecemakers (Quilters)

Church Library
Mondays @ 10am-2pm
Linda McIntosh 425-881-5203

Come when you can or come every week! It's an open door. The Quilters have a large stock of fabric and piece them into wonderful quilts for many charitable groups such as burn units, PICU, and nursing homes. You can bring your own project to work on, help with the quilts they have in progress, tie some, or just visit while they sew. (Bring your own lunch.)

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Library
3rd Wed @ 1:30pm
Nancy Williams 425-827-6540

For ladies who crochet and/or knit, this is the ministry that your skill, talent and hobby can bless others. They meet together to create prayer shawls, assembled with love and prayers sewed in to each of them. The shawls are available to be given to those who are facing difficult times such as loss, grief, and illness.

Teacup Ladies

Church and Off Campus
Quarterly, as announced
Barb Lince 425-883-0740
The Teacup Ladies are unmarried women who love each other's company. They get together for special events such as trips to a concert, a play at Kirkland Theater, Movies in the Library, a special Tea Party hosted by a local retirement community. If you are a single, adult woman and would like the company and fellowship of others, this is a great place to be!

Men's Basketball

Church Gym
Mondays @ 8:15pm
Pastor Brian North 425-827-4649
Men from all around the community gather for a time of recreation through pick-up basketball. It's relaxed and welcomes all skill level.

Golf

Willows Run GC
Weekly, as weather permits
Brett Buchanan 425-736-4190
Golfers from all levels that meet once a week for practice and devotional time. Basic instruction will be available by Brett, a former assistant golf professional at the Waikoloa Beach Resort.
